Bernard Ramm
The Christian View of Science and Scripture (Grand Rapids: Eerdmans, 1954), 196.

“Although it has been claimed that the Fathers believed it and some of the post – reformation exegetes taught it, its great popularity dates from the work of Chalmers (1780–1847)....If it was Chalmers who first vigorously advocated it in modern times, it was the work of G. H. Pember (Earth’s Earliest Ages, first edition, 1876; frequently republished) which canonized it. Pember’s work became one of the core books which has shaped modern Fundamentalism.”

43

Romans 8:19-22

¹⁹ For the anxious longing of the creation waits eagerly for the revealing of the sons of God. ²⁰ For the creation was subjected to futility, not willingly, but because of Him who subjected it, in hope ²¹ that the creation itself also will be set free from its slavery to corruption into the freedom of the glory of the children of God. ²² For we know that the whole creation groans and suffers the pains of childbirth together until now.
