Rick Joyner
The Harvest, 1989-1990, revised booklet page 121.

"The doctrine of the rapture was a great and effective use of the enemy to implant in the church a retreat mentality. Already this yoke has been cast off by the majority of the advancing church and it will soon be cast off by all." (italics added)

"I personally do not believe that by the year 2020, any credible person will be teaching the secret pre-trib. rapture doctrine. I think the events that are coming in the next five years will utterly destroy the doctrine."

Rick Wiles: The secret Pre-Trib Rapture story and Christian Zionism that is a two headed—

Doc Burkhart: Monster.

Rick Wiles: --monster. It is a two headed freak monster. Okay. They come together, both of them come together because they were started by the same people. The Christian Zionists started the Pre-Trib Rapture doctrine.

Doc Burkhart: And this was seed planted decades ago, but it came into full fruit in within the last 30 years.

Rick Wiles: That's right. They had to create the Pre-Trib Rapture doctrine to justify Christian Zionism. That's where it all came from. But isn't it interesting that in the recent decades where the American Evangelical Church has been taken over by Christian Zionism, that the American Evangelical Church has lost its flavor.

Doc Burkhart: Yes.

Rick Wiles: It has lost its saltiness. It is of no use anymore to God in this country.

Doc Burkhart: Right. In fact things are worse off now than they were 30 years ago.

Rick Wiles: We've become a pagan nation.

Doc Burkhardt: We're Babylon.

Rick Wiles: We're Babylon and it happened on the watch of the Christian Zionist. I'm laying it on your doorstep Christian Zionists. You are the cause of America's decline.

Doc Burkhardt: Those are strong words there.

Rick Wiles: They are strong words, and I mean it. They took control of the churches in America, the Christian Zionist. They changed the Gospel. They took Jesus off the cross. They replaced the cross with the Star of David. They took the focus off God, and holiness. They put it all on a piece of land in the Middle East. And America has gone to hell. America has gone to hell. We've become a pagan, heathen nation because the Christian Zionists have taken our eyes off Jesus.

"The movie is a complete bust," Barton rejoiced. "It did really pathetic at the box office ... and quite frankly I was somewhat happy the movie was a bust." Barton said the "Left Behind" series has convinced too many Christians that "it is a waste of time to get involved." Barton "was really grateful that the movie didn't do well because I didn't want that mentality going out there. It violates way too many things in the Bible. I think the movie not doing well is [a sign] that hopefully our eschatology is beginning to change for a more sound biblical direction in America," he said. "Maybe we're getting a little more mature and a little wiser over some things."

Barbara R. Rossing

The Rapture Exposed: The Message of Hope in the Book of Revelation (Boulder, CO: Westview Press, 2004), 3-2.

"The rapture is a racket. Whether prescribing a violent script for Israel or survivalism in the United States, this theology distorts God's vision for the world...This theology is not biblical. We are not raptured off the earth, nor is God. No, God has come to live in the world through Jesus. God created the world, God loves the world, God will never leave the world behind!"

"No, Christians Should Not Believe in 'Left Behind'-Style Rapture Theology, Says Prominent Christian Philosopher," online: <https://www.christianpost.com/news/no-christians-should-not-believe-in-left-behind-rapture-theology-says-prominent-apologist-124070/>, July 30 2014, accessed 14 February 2018.

"This doctrine is not really found in the book of Revelation. If you read the book of Revelation, you won't find any mention of the rapture there. [The idea of the rapture comes from a] misinterpretation of 1 and 2 Thessalonians where Paul is describing the coming of the Lord and resurrection of the dead, which will occur at His coming. If you compare what Paul says there to what Jesus says about the End Times, Paul uses the same vocabulary, the same phraseology. I think it's very plausible that Paul is talking about the same event that Jesus predicted, namely the visible coming of the Son of Man at the end of human history to usher in his kingdom."

"But proponents of the rapture view, say that Paul is not at all talking about the second coming of the Christ there. What he's really talking about is this invisible preliminary secret return of Christ to snatch believers out of the world before the great tribulation occurs. I think there's no textual warrant for that at all. A good many Bible-believing Christians absorbed this view as their mother's milk as it were and have never thought to question its Biblical credentials. It could be maybe good fiction. It would be say like reading science fiction or fantasy novels like The Lord of the Rings."

"Just so long as you're not deceived into thinking that represents biblical eschatology. It is astonishing, if I'm correct about this, American evangelism is very widely misled, that it has departed from the historic Christian position about the second coming of Christ. That's really rather sobering, because if we're wrong about this, what other things might we have misinterpreted?"

"When Paul wrote 1 Thessalonians people were worried that when Jesus returned, those who were dead would stay dead and miss out on the 'new day.' Some people have taken the verses that followed literally, but the problem is that that is not what this verse is about. Paul is awfully good at mixed metaphors. When Jesus comes back, it's not to snatch people away from earth but rather to transform earth with the life of Heaven and to transform us as well. He doesn't come back to take us away, but to heal the world and to heal and transform his people."

Caller: "What I am trying to understand is where do they get the teaching that the Church will be raptured out and will not have to go through Tribulation? Where is that found at?"

Hank Hanegraaff: "It's not found. That's the whole point. The point is it's something that is imposed on the Scripture. The notion is a very new notion in Church history; it is a 19th Century notion that was popularized by John Nelson Darby. And it comes with the presupposition that God has two distinct people; and therefore He has two distinct plans for the two distinct people..."

Hank Hanegraaff: "...And He has two distinct phases of the Second Coming, and two distinct destinies. This however, is an imposition on Scripture because the truth of it is God has only, always had one chosen people. One covenant community. Beautifully connected by the cross and illustrated by a cultivated olive tree in Paul's letter to the Romans. So, the point here is that all those who are followers of Jesus Christ are the one chosen people. And this is prior to the cross as well because all that looked forward to Christ prior to the cross are God's covenant chosen people. And the covenant chosen people are made up of people from every tongue, and language and nation and people. You are not a son of Abraham because of some genealogical construction. You are a son of Abraham because you believe in the God of Abraham."

"What if the end of the world really isn't as so many have portrayed it? What if the Church is not Raptured to heaven before the Great Tribulation as many are teaching? What if the Church has been left ill-prepared to face the Antichrist and the Mark of the Beast? What if Tim LaHaye's claim that if the Pre-Tribulation Rapture is false then the Blessed Hope will become the blasted hope, actually comes true for millions of Pretribulationists? What if millions who have been led astray by the Pre-Trib teaching become part of the great falling away that Jesus warned would take place at that time? Left behind, or led astray? The issue of the Pre-Tribulation versus . . .

... versus the Post-Tribulational Rapture is one of the premier pastoral issues of our day. If you are a pastor that is not preparing your people to face potentially the Antichrist in the Great Tribulation in this hour simply because your denomination teaches it or whatever, personally I think you're failing in your role as a shepherd and a pastor."

"The Evangelical Christian movement in America latched on to a 19th Century concept that was hatched by someone called John Nelson Darby, who said that Jesus could not come back until Israel had been restored as a nation, populated by Jews, with Jerusalem as its capital. This is not traditional Christian teaching in the Protestant Church. This was not a concern of Martin Luther or any Roman Catholic, or the Greek Orthodox or anyone else. When I was a kid, my parents had their ministry L'Abri. We had a number of Christian leaders come by. One of them, Hal Lindsey, had written a book called 'The Late Great Planet Earth' in which he predicted the end times ...

"... coming in 1980s. He said it is now possible because Israel has been restored. And then others came back and said, 'No, no, Jesus can't come back yet because Jerusalem is not restored.' Fast forward to the 16 books and 4 films that you had that came out of the Left Behind series written by a friend of mine Jerry Jenkins, and his sidekick co-author Tim LaHaye, that (sic) wrote it with him. And you've got 60 million copies sold that essentially are total fiction. 'I am going to give you an analogy, this is as if the Twilight Zone had been taken as gospel by some religious group and they were going back through old episodes and basing an entire cultic kind of religion on it."

John Piper
<https://www.desiringgod.org/interviews/what-is-the-rapture>

Question: "Pastor John, I know this is a huge debate, but I would love your thoughts. How many times is Jesus coming back? Is he coming back in the rapture (according to 1 Thessalonians 4:16-17) and then returning a second time to defeat Satan (according to Revelation 19:11-21)? Is Christ returning one more time, or two more times?"

Answer: "My understanding of the New Testament is that Jesus promised he would return, and that in this returning, he would do a final rescue for those who are trusting him and a final judgment for those who are not believing in him. I don't think there are two comings of Christ in the future, but only one."

7 Arguments Favoring the Pre-Tribulation View

1. Tribulation's purpose concerns Israel (Jer 30:7; Dan 9:24)
2. No biblical reference to the church on earth during the Tribulation period (Rev 4-22)
3. Church is promised an exemption from divine wrath (1 Thess 1:10; 5:9; Rom 5:9; Rev 3:10; 6:17)
4. Rapture is imminent (1 Cor 15:51; 1 Thess 4:15)
5. Rapture is a comfort (1 Thess 4:18)
