

1. Someone recently argued that the Church will go through the tribulation because the rapture is a resurrection and Jesus said he will raise us up on the last day. How many days are left after the last day? None. Therefore, we must go through the tribulation. John 6:39,40, 44: “39 This is the will of the Father who sent Me, that of all He has given Me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up AT THE LAST DAY...40 And this is the will of Him who sent Me, that everyone who sees the Son and believes in Him may have everlasting life; and I will raise him up AT THE LAST DAY...44 No one can come to Me unless the Father who sent Me draws him; and I will raise him up AT THE LAST DAY.” How do we understand those verses in the light of the pre-tribulation rapture?

3. I see this come up A LOT with end-time "watchmen." They link Matthew 24 "fig tree generation" to the Psalm 90, which indicates that the days of a lifetime are between 70 and 80 years. These watchmen then claim that Israel's rebirth in 1948 started a "generation countdown" that MUST end in 2028 because Psalm 90 says that a man's lifetime is only 80 years. Can you PLEASE address this?
